Features

Anyone searching for a house that's already propane ready? Blueberry beach is the one! Some neighborhoods don't have access to natural gas, so this is a perfect option for those that need propane. Come inside and enjoy the large living room and kitchen/dining spaces. The bedrooms are a great size as well. This is a perfect family home with some updates already completed for you.

Currently this home is a 2-storey but we will only be taking the top floor so it could be the rancher style you'll love, or you could keep it a 2-storey home by building a basement under it.

Please call your local office today for any questions you have or to schedule a viewing.
